Video note: The attached new video (July 2015) shows Tuxedosam, Keroppi, Kiki, Lala, Purin, and Hello Kitty. This book is darling! I especially love that it's hardcover and bound in signatures, so it lies flat when you work! I pre-ordered it and was pretty much counting down the days until it came out! I'd seen Mei Li Lee's website and almost made one of the patterns she had there for a few Sanrio characters, quite some time ago. It was neat to find out her website's Sanrio patterns are responsible for her being discovered. PATTERNS Anyway, down to the nitty gritty of the book. First, there is a really great selection here. I really appreciate how it's NOT just about Hello Kitty. I'm a Sanrio fan who will choose Hello Kitty items last since she's so easy to find; whereas the other Sanrio characters never get their due. The sad thing for me, however, is that the character I was looking forward to making the most, Cinnamoroll, is featured on page 12, yet is nowhere to be found in the book! I'm sure crafters could easily create him (except for his cinnamon bun tail!) since the projects reuse the same basic patterns, but this seemed like an oversight. Please skip this specific paragraph if you want to be surprised and don't want to know which patterns are included in the book.
